

Controlled ventilation in residential buildings

REHVA Seminar - ISH 2017

Date: Thursday, 16 March, 2017
Venue: ISH Exhibition, Frankfurt, Level 1, Room Transparenz 2
Chairs: Prof. Stefano Corgnati, REHVA President
 Prof. Jarek Kurnitski, REHVA Vice-President, Chair of the Technical and Research Committee

14.00-14.10	Welcome and opening ➤ Prof. Uwe Franzke, VDI-TGA President
14:10-14:25	➤ Keynote: Do we need mechanical ventilation in our homes? Prof. Stefano Corgnati, REHVA President
14:25-14:50	➤ Mechanical ventilation and IAQ in high performing residential buildings in Germany and Europe. A policy and market outlook. Claus Händel, European Ventilation Industry Association
14:50-15:15	➤ Appropriate design of mechanical heat recovery ventilation systems for residential buildings Prof. Jarek Kurnitski, REHVA Vice-President
15:15-15:40	➤ New control technologies for residential ventilation Klaus Lang, Director Product Area Residential Ventilation, Systemair
15.40-16:05	➤ Future trends, advanced control technologies for smart homes Olaf Harms, Product manager - Systems, Swegon Operations AB
16:05-16:50	SPEAKER PANEL DISCUSSION Moderators: Anita Derjanecz, REHVA Managing Director Prof. Jarek Kurnitski, REHVA Vice-President, TRC Chair
16:50-17:00	Closing remarks Prof. Jarek Kurnitski, REHVA Vice-President, TRC Chair