

WORKSHOP

“HIGH ENERGY PERFORMANCE HOTELS ON TRACK TO NEARLY ZERO ENERGY BUILDINGS”

Time and date: 11 September 2015, 9.45-11.15

Venue: Auditorium, Congress Center, Antibes Juan-les-Pins, France

Chairs:

Prof. Stefano Corgnati, REHVA President-elect, Politecnico di Torino

Prof. Theocharis Tsoutsos, neZEH project coordinator, Technical University of Crete

Programme:

5'	Welcome and opening, introduction to the workshop Stefano Corgnati , REHVA President-elect, TEBE Research Group, Energy Department of Politecnico di Torino
10'	Nearly Zero Energy Hotels – from European policy to real life examples Theocharis Tsoutsos , neZEH project coordinator Renewable and Sustainable Energy Systems Lab, Technical University of Crete
10'	What is a “nearly zero energy hotel”? Anita Derjanecz , REHVA Policy and Project Officer
15'	Italian pilot hotels towards neZEH: targeting energy performance goals through cost optimality approach Stefano Corgnati , REHVA President-elect, TEBE Research Group, Energy Department of Politecnico di Torino
15'	The energy and environmental performance as a marketing opportunity in the accommodation sector : the experience of the French pilot hotels Stéphane Pouffary , Founder and Honorary President, ENERGIES 2050
30'	Roundtable discussion Moderators: Stefano Corgnati, Theocharis Tsoutsos
5'	Conclusions Stefano Corgnati