

REHVA - EUROVENT Seminar
EU regulation towards energy efficient and healthy buildings
29 September 2016, 13.00-17.00
Holiday Inn Krakow City Centre, Degas Ballroom

Chairs:

Jarek Kurnitski, REHVA Vice-president, Chair of the Technical and Research Committee
Erick Melquiond, President, Eurovent Certita Certification

13.00-13.10	Welcome note: Stefano Corgnati - President, REHVA Erick Melquiond - President, Eurovent Certita Certification
13.10-13.35	Updates on EU policies on energy efficiency, the review of EPBD and EED - Claudia CANEVARI , European Commission, DG Energy
13.35-14.00	Assessment of the environmental performance of buildings, Josefina Lindblom , European Commission, DG Environment
14.00-14.25	Assessment of the progress towards the establishment of definitions of efficient buildings in European Member States - Delia D'Agostino , European Commission, Joint Research Centre
14.25-14.50	A successful nZEB story in Europe, Stefano Corgnati , REHVA
14.50-15.15	COFFEE BREAK
15.15-15.40	Air quality and Air Handling Unit. The concept of AHU hygienic by Eurovent Certita Certification - Quentin Liebens , Eurovent Certita Certification
15.40-16.05	Policy developments regarding the inclusion of ventilation and IEQ – JRC proposal, Jarek Kurnitski , REHVA
16.05-16.30	The WELL certification scheme: Indoor Environmental requirements and HVAC system implications, Atze Boerstra , REHVA
16.30-17.00	Moderated discussion