

4 November 2021

13:00-16:00

Meeting tool: WebEx events

“Fit for 55”. The bumpy road to decarbonising the EU building stock

AGENDA

SESSION 1: EU policies to pave the way for decarbonization

- 13:00 Welcome and opening keynote
Frank Hovorka, REHVA President
- 13:10 Fit for 55 package and building decarbonisation. News and novelties of the EPBD revision.
Stefan Moser, Head of Unit, DG Energy
- 13:30 Renewable heating and cooling: technology trends & policy perspectives
Lukas Kranzl, Senior researcher, TU Wien
- 13:45 Making the EPBD fit for 2030 and beyond
Oliver Rapf, General Director, BPIE
- 14:00 Supporting decarbonisation and indoor climate quality with the next EPBD
Jarek Kurnitski, REHVA TRC Chair, Taltech
- 14:15 Questions and discussion
Moderator: Anita Derjanecz, REHVA Managing Director

14:30 Coffee break & video announcements

SESSION 2: Assessing building performance to achieve Sustainable and healthy buildings

- 14:45 EU LEVELS scheme for sustainable buildings
Josefina Lindblom, Policy Officer, DG Environment
- 14:55 JRC guidance to apply Levels to building projects
Shane Donatello, Scientific Policy Officer, EU Joint Research Centre
- 15:10 EU Taxonomy criteria for climate positive buildings & investments
Anna Braune, DGNB Head of research
- 15:25 From theory to practice with the ALRDEN tools
Johann Zirngibl, ALDREN project coordinator
- 15:40 Panel discussion
Moderator: Frank Hovorka, REHVA President
- 16:00 Closing remarks